Diversified and Eagle Harbor Solutions Partner to Serve Federal and Intel Communities

Small Business Administration approves Mentor-Protégé Relationship between Diversified and Eagle Harbor Solutions

KENILWORTH, NJ - Diversified, the industry leading technology provider delivering innovative solutions and managed services to today's global markets, and Eagle Harbor Solutions, LLC (EHS) announce today that they will be partnering to serve the federal and intel communities as part of the 8(a) Business Development Mentor-Protégé Program. The two companies will be working collaboratively to provide general and technical business knowledge while building a mutually beneficial business relationship for future government contracts.

"Diversified welcomes the opportunity to work alongside and mentor our trusted partner, Eagle Harbor Solutions," commented Fred D'Alessandro, Diversified Founder and CEO. "As an organization that emphasizes training and continuing education, we are excited to partake in this program that will allow both organizations to grow and provide exceptional technology solutions to the federal government."

Eagle Harbor Solutions is an SBA-certified 8(a) Alaska Native Company. The company provides a full spectrum of information technology and professional support services for the Federal Government.

Eagle Harbor President Todd Morgan, recognizes the importance of the program as one means of expanding into new markets. "We are honored to work with Diversified and to have been approved by the SBA for participation in this valuable program. Small businesses must diversify and adapt to market changes and we see the Mentor/Protégé program as a tool to help EHS with that. We are especially excited to be working with Diversified in this capacity and believe that we will complement each other's strengths to create a successful relationship for all involved. The knowledge and expertise we will receive from Diversified will help us expand and advance our capabilities."
